Revelation 6:15-16.

"Prepare to meet thy God!"

BRACKEN MEN THIRD GROUP IN DOMINION

Saskatchewan provincial election results indicate that the real contest in the next federal election will be between the Liberals and the CCF. In the sense of popular and geographic representation, the Liberals remain the only national party with members in Parliament from every province. The CCF have no members representing any of the nine provinces, Alberta, Nova Scotia, P.E.I. and Quebec and have only one M.P. out of the 82 from Ontario.

There are no Progressive Conservative M.P.'s from Alberta, P.E.I. or Quebec and only one each from Manitoba and Nova Scotia. The fact that in the Saskatchewan voting the Progressive Conservatives were unable to elect a single member, despite Liberal losses, is taken here to mean that the CCF has supplanted the Bracken group as the second party in the Dominion.

LIBERALS WILL NOT SEEK COALITIONS WITH TORIES

It has become known here that the Liberals do not intend to work toward any coalition or joint government in the federal field. They will run a completely independent campaign, seeking election on their own record and their social and economic legislative program. They will enter into no bargains with other parties. The Progressive Conservatives on the other hand, have shown distinct signs of linking up with the nationalistic Duplessis group in Quebec, the Union Nationale. Since the speech of C. P. McTague, new national party chairman, at Guelph, it seems the Progressive Conservatives are going to try to capitalize on the pro-secessionist sentiments outside of Quebec, and through Duplessis on the anti-secession feeling in Quebec.

LIBERALS RETAIN LARGE POPULAR VOTE

Analysis of the Sask. vote shows that only about 3,000 more voted radical than in 1938. But these ballots went to the CCF instead of being divided among different parties. The Liberal party retains the substantial popular vote of more than 130,000 while the Progressive Conservatives hit the new low of probably less than 30,000. The CCF capitalized on any advance which the depression before the war presented. CCF success in cities, towns and villages is attributed to irritation of the voters at price, wage and selective service controls. Collection of necessarily high income taxes at the source, cutting down wages and salary cheques is also believed to account in good measure for the urban protest vote. The feature of the election is that Progressive Conservatives were unable to win back from the CCF and radical parties, the support which swung away from the Anderson government in 1938. The Anderson government was formed in 1935 with a popular vote of only 131,000 as against 165,000 for the Liberals and retained office only with the support of the radical groups led by present heads of the CCF.

FAMILY Allowances start July 1945

Details of the biggest social measure in Canada's history, family allowances based on the number of children under 16, have been presented to Parliament. Starting July 1, 1945, payment will be made in respect of 3,450,000 under 16 years of age. The outlay will be about $200,000,000 a year and every cent of this will add to the purchasing power of low-income groups, enabling them to buy goods and produce made or produced in Canada.

Cheques will go to the parent who supports the children. In the case of men overseas the cheques will go to their wives at home. The scale is: $5 a month for a child under 6; $6 a month for a child between 6 and 10; $7 a month for a child between 10 and 13 and $8 a month for a child between 13 and 16. Where there is a large family the rates will be lower by $1 a month for the fifth child; by $2 a month for the 6th and 7th children and by $3 a month for the 8th and any additional child. Thus payments will run from $5 a month to $40 and are expected to average about $23.5 a month per child.

It is believed this is one of the largest postwar prosperity measures ever attempted. Not only will it enable low income families to improve their standard of living and clothe and feed their children better, but the added demand for articles and food will stimulate sales from farms and factories throughout the Dominion.

Volcano Blast Quis! Alaska Army Depot

The eruption of Mount Cleveland which began June 19 and is still continuing has prompted the evacuation of a United States army installation on Chugachak Island and possibly has taken one life, the 11th army air force announced.

Mount Cleveland is a volcano on Chugachak Island in the islands of the four mountain group in the eastern Alutian area.

Eruptions accompanied by severe earthquakes began in full force during the afternoon of June 19. American army personnel stationed there reported rocks "As huge as automobiles" belched from the crater over the entire island.

A rescue party arrived that night but while evacuation and recovery of material was going on the following morning "the entire mountain top blew off" army witnesses reported. Lava and rock were scattered over the island and the Bering Sea for miles around.

The missing soldier was thought lost in the first hour of the eruption. His companions said he apparently had advanced too close to the volcano in an attempt to evaluate the danger and was knocked unconscious or killed by falling rock and his body later covered by lava which had poured down the mountain for three miles when the rescue party left.

Canadians Eat more Ice Cream

Dripping brows and dripping ice cream cones are a sure sign of summer. And in most parts of the country the ice cream season is already at hand. According to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, the Canadian not only like ice cream but take far more of it than in previous years.

Figures on the per capita consumption of ice cream in Canada from 1937 to 1943 showed a rise of 42 per cent during that time. By provinces British Columbia had the highest per capita consumption, followed closely by Ontario and then Nova Scotia. Lowest consumption per person was in Prince Edward Is.

Matrimony brought Ada Warren from New York to Canada. She is heard in "Dreaming Time" on the CBC's Dominion Network, Wednesday 8:30 p.m. She began her musical career on Broadway with Morton Downey, and has travelled as far as Brazil. Montreal is now her home.

URGENT Appeal To Correspondents

Your editor wishes to impress you with the importance of the local news. Although it may not seem important to you it is to the average reader of the paper. To them it is a review of some of the happenings in many cases it is real news.

Then too, you must not forget the boys in the armed services. They look for their weekly news of their home community in the local weekly newspaper. Would you disappoint them this week and the next by neglecting to send in your contributions?

Therefore let us work together, each one doing his part, for the pleasure of those who look for your weekly contribution.

Mail to be sent to Invasion Forces

Arrangements were made some time ago to ship mail to Canadian soldiers participating in the invasion of Europe. Postmaster General William Mulock told the House of Commons.

The Postmaster said he did not know at any point for mail would be immediately available in ships crossing the channel to France, but as soon as space was available mail would be sent to Canada's fighting men.

COUNTLESS NEWS

Forest Cowan from Midnapore has been visiting at Deans.

We extend hearty congratulations

Cotton is a war weapon and this young Canadian who is contributing to her work knows it. Her part-time job is "drawing in ends" at a cotton mill in her home town in Quebec. Opposite her co-workers' nimble fingers reach out to catch the threads and thus carry the process of cotton yarn manufacture one step further. This yarn will come off the loom probably as aircraft fabric for Canada's front line fighter planes and bombers.

Of lead; 1,500 tons of nickel; 120,000 tons of flour and 10,000 tons of wheat as well as complete lines of shell-making equipment. Despite limitations of transportation, China got munitions shipped complete and all ranges of guns, vehicles and wireless equipment. Australia and India were sent material valued at over $21 million.

Next-of-Kin of SOLDIERS

Next-of-kin of soldiers overseas should send vacation-time changes of address to the Director of Records, Department of National Defense, Ottawa, or if they cannot be easily reached give the name and address of relative or friend to whom any casualty telegrams could be delivered. Dates of arrival and departure from away-addresses should also be given.

10,000,000th PARCEL

June 5 was a big day in Canadian Red Cross history. It marked packing of the 10,000,000th food parcel for Canadian and British prisoners of war. This means that Canadian women packed 55,000 tons of food. Think of it! The Canadian and British prisoners get one parcel weekly and those of allied countries receive one a month. New packing plants are to be opened as the society right now has only capacity for putting up 100,000 parcels weekly in five plants. They'll have to increase that to possibly 190,000 a week.

VOTING CONDITIONS

The House of Commons has approved a bill providing for voting by service personnel. In brief, except prisoners of war, they will vote direct, not by proxy. For prisoners of war, officially recorded next of kin can vote for them by proxy. A "war service elector" embraces those in the army, navy and air force, mercantile marine and any Canadian serving on a ship of Canadian, British or Allied registry. The question of age is immaterial. One who has previous residence in this country, a British subject, who enlisted in British forces subsequent to January 1, 1937 can also vote.

Canadas Activity

Canada spent $912 millions in Mutual Aid in the first 10 months of the Board's operations, out of which over $723 million went to Britain. You may be astonished to know that included in shipments to Britain were 700 aircraft, 3,075 armoured fighting vehicles, 72,000 mechanical transport vehicles, 519, 552 machine guns and small arms, 551,900,000 rounds of ammunition, 6, 479 tons of explosives, 1,622 ships besides 100,000 tons of farm products and the first Shipment of Mutual Aid to Russia on August 1, 1943. To the end of March we supplied them with 13, 500 tons of aluminium, 11,700 tons Wear Canada's Badge of Honour on your arm. You'll be proud of it, so will your friends.

Every man who is able has got to do his bit!

Maybe you don't think this means you... that it's a job for the other fellow. If you do, you're wrong. It's your war, too... a war for every man who is a man... for everyone who has a stake in Canada.

Yes, this means you all right and we need you now for the months of intensive training to make you fighting-fit. We did it before and we can do it again... but we need your help.

Feed Grains Disappears

Farmers will be interested in this answer to the enormous disappearance of feed grains in Canada during the past two years. Since 1941, total number of cattle, hogs, horses, sheep, hens and chickens on our farms increased about one-third. Hens and chickens rose by 14,000,000; hogs by nearly three million and cattle 1,250,000. During the crop year 1942-43 the quantity of oats consumed for livestock and poultry feed totalled "433,000,000 bushels while barley was fed to the extent of 146,000,000 bushels. Besides this no less than 94 million bushels of wheat went towards the maintenance of Canada's live stock and poultry. Preliminary estimates are about the same for the current crop year, although less oats, more wheat likely to go to animals.

Check Premier King's Clothing

Canada's clothing regulations apply to everybody—including Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

F. A. McGregor of Ottawa the enforcement officer for the WPTB said here that he was forced to call on the Prime Minister recently to check rumors that this country's leader had appeared in a double-breasted suit.

Mr. King owned a double-breasted suit all right—but it was three years old. McGregor explained that the Prime Minister purchased the suit before double-breasted models were banned in 1941 to save cloth.

It is a wise wartime gardener who knows a thing or three about fighting the insect diseases that attack his garden. The best way is literally to nip them in the bud. In the picture above, a gardener is illustrating one of the best ways to combat wartime garden pests. He is dusting insect powder on his plants in their early stages of growth. Gets the insects at their early stage too.

Cost of War to Date
200 BILLION

The war to date has cost 200 billion dollars and before the year is out another 90 billions will go into the "kitty," Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr. reported this week.

Further interesting disclosure: The march from Naples to Rome cost 4 billions 700 millions and the cost of taking the Marshall Islands was billions.

"I leave it to you to imagine what it cost to march from Rome to Berlin and from the Marshall Islands to Tokio," Morgenthau stated.

EMPLOYMENT DROPS

A curtailment of industrial employment was evident in Canada at the beginning of April, but the general decline was rather below average.

The decline occurred largely in manufacturing logging and construction, from which about 14, 000 employees were released. Coal mining was also quieter.
